

I have been reading articles about cross ownership of news media (TV/newspaper) and the apparent rush to approve removal of the ban. We have some of the poorest news reporting in the world in this country the way it is, I can't see concentrating it more. The only advantage I can see is to further control news that is available to the majority of Americans.

The only newspaper I have subscribed to for the past 10 years is the Christian Science Monitor (I am not a Christian Science member) but I pray to their God that they continue as one of the only free-thinking newspapers available in America.

It is amazing what is going on in our world in these trying times that I find out only in The Monitor and on the Internet often through British reporting.

Please do not revoke the cross ownership ban.

Sincerely,

Paul L. Vance
